MISSION.

To promote, celebrate, encourage and showcase female talent.

ABOUT US.

The Girlie Show Committee consists of Marilyn Artus, Erin Merryweather and Dawn Harth. The Girlie Show started out as a collective wish for a show that was the right kind of venue for the funky, crafty, non-traditional-art sorts of things we all created. A few months, a heckuva lot of planning, several generous sponsors and a cosmo or three later...The Girlie Show debuted in October 2004.

WHO YOU ARE.

Did you just read "About Us" and think "OMG! That's so me!?" Then girl, this show is so you. Oh - and in case you haven't picked up on it yet, you gotta be a girl.

WHAT YOU CREATE.

All types of art and craft - fashion, paintings, photography, drawings, jewelry, decor, random oddities...we don't know. You tell us. We're open to all kinds of stuff. All we ask is that your creations are your own. NO COMMERCIAL PRODUCTS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

This is a juried show. All registrants will be screened and acceptance will be the decision of The Girlie Show Committee. Inclusion in previous year's shows does not guarantee acceptance. The Committee reserves the right to ask vendors to remove questionable (ex: too risqué or commercial) items from their booth.

NOTE: In addition to The Girlie Show finalist list, there will be an Alternates List consisting of five selected applicants. These applicants will have met all criteria for acceptance into The Girlie Show, but were unable to be selected as finalists due to space restrictions. In the event of artist cancellation(s), applicant(s) on the Alternates List will be notified immediately and given the option to participate. You will be notified on your original application reply letter if you are on the Alternates List.

WHAT YOU GET.
